

Message Notes: Change of Plans Week 3

John 14:1-12

1. What things had Jesus said and done that caused the disciples' hearts to be troubled?
2. Stop and take an honest look at your heart. How is it troubled?
3. What command did Jesus give for our troubled hearts?
4. Jesus offers three things to help calm our troubled hearts:
 - 1) _____ has a _____
How does this comfort you?
 - 2) _____ provides the _____
How does this comfort you?
 - 3) _____ has a _____ _____
How does this comfort you?
5. Think of one person you know whose heart is troubled. Make a plan to share some of Jesus' comfort with them this week.

Growth Group Study: Change of Plans Week 3

John 14:1-12

1. What were some thoughts from the text / message that stuck with you this week?
2. What is your go-to source for driving directions? Share a "directions story" if you have one.
3. Why was it a revolutionary idea for Jesus to claim the disciples could "know" and had "seen" the Father?
4. As a group, discuss the implications of v.6 for friends, acquaintances, relatives, and neighbors.
5. How would you answer each of these claims?
 - 1) There are many roads to heaven.
 - 2) All religions worship the same God.
 - 3) It's arrogant to say one religion is "right" and all the rest are "wrong."
6. How is it possible for Jesus' disciples to do "greater" works than he did?
