

Message Notes: I'm Invaluable

1 Corinthians 12:12-27

1. As you walk away from the service today, there are three words God wants you to be able to say. We'd said them together a couple times during the service. Those words are:

“ _____ ”

2. What were some of the problems the church in Corinth was experiencing?
3. We often take on a new identity when we are part of a group. “As a group my identity resides in the _____.”
4. What would happen if we all tried to fill the same role in a church?
5. Why can you rejoice even in the accomplishments of other members of the body of Christ?
6. List some things that could happen if we all learned to pool the gifts God has given us together?
7. Who is the head of this body of Christ?
8. Growth groups. Are you in?

Growth Group Study: I'm Invaluable

1 Corinthians 12:12-27

1. If you were one part of the human body, which part would best represent you?
2. What were some thoughts from the text / message that stuck with you this week?
3. Has anything been stopping you from sharing your gifts with the church?
4. God loves you! You matter! Your story, voice, and gifts are all important. Do you have trouble believing this? Why or why not?
5. Some of the Corinthians felt certain spiritual gifts were better than others. Have you ever encountered that attitude among Christians? How about in yourself?
6. How is the diversity of the gifts related to the unity of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit?
7. Consider how you could use the gifts and experiences God's given you. How could you love, serve, or share with others?
