

Message Notes: God's Government: Stressing These Things

Titus 3:1-8

1. Write down some ideas from the first sermon in our series.
2. Write down some ideas from the second sermon in our series.
3. Write down some ideas from the third sermon in our series.
4. Write down some ideas from the fourth sermon in our series.
5. Why do we need these reminders?
6. What's the key phrase in verse 3 which shows we are no longer "foolish, disobedient, deceived..."?

7. What changed us?
8. Why don't you have to wait until your life is over to find out where you are going?
9. What is the key to not looking down on someone else?
10. How can the salvation we have in Christ shape the way we act right now?

Growth Group Study: Stressing These Things

Titus 3:1-8

1. In what situation do you least exhibit your faith (examples could be check-out lines, fender benders, tough exams, company situations, athletics, etc.)?
2. What were some thoughts from the text / message that stuck with you this week?
3. Does verse 3 paint an accurate picture of you in the past? Were these characteristics an obvious part of your life or more of an underlying reality?
4. What good do you do at home, church, or in your community?
5. Over the past year, where have you sensed growth in leading a "productive" life for God?
6. How does a true understanding of these verses prompt humility? Gratitude? A life of service?
7. Over the course of this sermon series, what thought/insight from God's Word has been the most helpful for you?