

Message Notes: Deuteronomy 6:1-9

So that you, your children and their children after them may fear the LORD!

1. Why did Moses have to reiterate “the LORD is one?”
2. Jesus wants you to listen to the text today so that “you, your children and their children after them may _____ the LORD your God as long as you live.”
3. How would you explain the word “fear” found in verse 2?
4. Why is listening to God’s Word so important?
5. Why is sharing it with others so important?
6. Who is the greatest example when it comes to acting in love?
7. What are some ways we can show our love to God?
8. In five words or less, write down a thought or two that you took from today’s message.

Growth Group: Deuteronomy 6:1-9

So that you, your children and their children after them may fear the LORD!

GETTING STARTED

As a child, what was one lesson you were taught by an adult for which you are most grateful today?

INTO MY HEART

What were some thoughts from the text / message that stuck with you this week?

Moses briefly touches on how God is the only God. What might be some ways in which God is absolutely unique from everyone and everything else?

Out of the 6 reasons given for being bad listeners, which one do you find yourself struggling with the most?

What can you do to overcome these obstacles when it concerns listening to God?

Share some possible ways to “impress” the message of Jesus on children within families.

In your life right now, which action do you think speaks loudest about God for those around you?

As a group, craft one sentence that sums up why we share God with our words and actions.