

GROWTH GROUPS QUESTIONS

Job 1:13-22 & Job 13:20-28

GETTING TO KNOW EACH OTHER

Job lost all of his income in one day. What is the biggest amount of money you lost? How did that happen?

INTO THE WORD

What were some of the reasons Satan determined that Job was faithful? Is it easier to trust God when you are financially secure? Why or why not?

At first the devil couldn't physically harm Job. Later, he could. What does this reveal about the devil? About God? About humans?

How can someone remain faithful to God when life is difficult and “in shackles” as Job described himself?

INTO MY LIFE

Satan thought Job was a dedicated, faithful believer because he was extremely rich. Are all rich people believers in Jesus? What temptations do the elite wealthy have that you don't?

Job's wife said, “Curse God and die.” Have you been encouraged by someone to walk away from God? How did you respond?

Job endured well the pain of losing his livelihood, his servants, his children, and his health. When his friends accused him of being secretly rotten and deserving this treatment, that's when he broke. What is the importance of having Christ-centered friends in your life? Who is that person for you? What did that person do for you?

There is an incredible lesson taught about faith and eternity that is often overlooked in the book of Job. In chapter one, Job loses all of his possessions and his servants. Worse yet, his 10 children die. In the last chapter, everything Job lost he now received back double. But Job and his wife had 10 more children, not 20 more children. Why?

GROWTH GROUPS QUESTIONS

Job 1:13-22 & Job 13:20-28

GETTING TO KNOW EACH OTHER

Job lost all of his income in one day. What is the biggest amount of money you lost? How did that happen?

INTO THE WORD

What were some of the reasons Satan determined that Job was faithful? Is it easier to trust God when you are financially secure? Why or why not?

At first the devil couldn't physically harm Job. Later, he could. What does this reveal about the devil? About God? About humans?

How can someone remain faithful to God when life is difficult and “in shackles” as Job described himself?

INTO MY LIFE

Satan thought Job was a dedicated, faithful believer because he was extremely rich. Are all rich people believers in Jesus? What temptations do the elite wealthy have that you don't?

Job's wife said, “Curse God and die.” Have you been encouraged by someone to walk away from God? How did you respond?

Job endured well the pain of losing his livelihood, his servants, his children, and his health. When his friends accused him of being secretly rotten and deserving this treatment, that's when he broke. What is the importance of having Christ-centered friends in your life? Who is that person for you? What did that person do for you?

There is an incredible lesson taught about faith and eternity that is often overlooked in the book of Job. In chapter one, Job loses all of his possessions and his servants. Worse yet, his 10 children die. In the last chapter, everything Job lost he now received back double. But Job and his wife had 10 more children, not 20 more children. Why?